

Final program Workshop Politics and Policy of Carbon Capture and Storage, October 14-15 2010, Princeton University

Thursday, October 14

Venue: Princeton Campus, Prospect House, Room E

8.30-9.00 Coffee

9.00- 9.30 Presentation of the Mistra CCS project and white paper
Karin Bäckstrand, James Meadowcroft and Michael Oppenheimer

9.30-10.45 Thematic session 1: Terms of stakeholder engagement, formation of public views, public acceptance and discourses (Chair MO)

Elizabeth Malone, Jennie Stephens, Katarina Buhr

10.45-11.00 Coffee break

11.00-12.15 Thematic session 2: Role of conflicting interests and groups in government, industry, NGOs (Chair JM)

Frances Brown, Andreas Tjernshaugen, Rob Socolow

12-15-13.15 Lunch Princeton Garden's Room

13.15-14.45 Thematic session 3: Terms of regulation and allocation of responsibility (e.g., for long term hazard) (Chair KB)

Nigel Bankes, Asbjorn Torvanger, Elizabeth Wilson/Melissa Pollack, Atsushi Ishi

14.45-15.00 Coffee break

15.00-16.30 Thematic session 4: CCS evaluation in the contest of other energy options, transitions, lock-in, innovation pathways (Chair KB)

Jennifer Morgan, Heleen De Coninck, Nils Markussen, Mikael Román

16.30 -17.00 Comments and general discussion (Chair MO)

18.30- Dinner

Friday October 15

Venue: Nassau Inn, Room to be assigned

9.00-12.00 Brainstorm session

What are the research gaps/needs with regard to the politics, policy, regulation, management of CCS?

What is a promising social science questions in the CCS field and avenues for future research?

What issues, research perspectives, people are not covered in the white paper and the Global Environmental Change volume?

12.00-13.00 Lunch

Departure

Participants:

1. Karin Bäckstrand, Lund University, Sweden
2. Michael Oppenheimer, Princeton University, US.
3. James Meadowcroft, Carleton University, Canada
4. Atsushi Ishii, Tohoku University, Japan
5. Nils Markussen, University of Edinburg, UK
6. Jennie Stephens, Clark University, US
7. Asbjörn Torvanger, CICERO, Norway
8. Elizabeth Wilson, University of Minnesota, US
9. Mikael Román, Stockholm Environment Institute, Sweden
10. Melisa Pollack, University of Minnesota, US
11. Heleen de Coninck, ECN, the Netherlands
12. Mark Jaccard, Simon Fraser University, Canada
13. Katarina Buhr, Swedish Environmental Research Institute, Sweden
14. Rob Socolow, Princeton University, US.
15. Nigel Bankes, University of Calgary, Canada
16. Elizabeth Malone, Joint Global Change Research Institute, US
17. Andreas Tjernshaugen, CICERO, Norway
18. Jennifer Morgan, World Resource Institute, US
19. Francis Bowen, University of Calgary, Canada